RE: DIVORCE
MUTUAL CONSENT

Judgment

At the hearing on the above-captioned case, the petitioners Sonia López Báez and Walter Rodríguez Cordero both appeared on their own behalf.

With the witnesses being under oath, the Honorable court examined both petitioners and ascertained that the decision to petition the dissolution of the marriage bond existing between the parties is not the result of thoughtlessness or coercion. In turn, it was ascertained that the parties' stipulations were made freely and voluntarily, whereby the case was submitted to judgment.

Based on an analysis of the evidence presented, and in accordance with the provisions of Articles 96 and 97 of the Civil Code of Puerto Rico, 1930, as amended, 31 L.P.R.A. Sections 321 and 331, and the order issued by the Honorable Puerto Rico Supreme Court in the case of Figueroa Ferrer vs. ELA (107 D.P.R. 250), the court GRANTS the petition for divorce by mutual consent and consequently declares the matrimonial bond existing between the parties to be terminated and dissolved.

At the moment of the divorce hearing, the petitioner, Sonia López Báez was not pregnant and both petitioners, Sonia López Báez and Walter Rodríguez Cordero, have been residing in Puerto Rico for more than one year prior to their petition and this judgment, and her home address is: Hacienda Concordia, Calle Margarita 205 Santa Isabel, Puerto Rico 00757, and his home address is: Llanos del Sur, Calle 11 las Rosas Q 34, Coto Laurel Puerto Rico 00780.
